

1st Infantry Division News from Downrange

A 1st Infantry Division soldier on Forward Operating Base Danger, Iraq, watches a fireworks display during the "Freedom Day Celebration" on July 4th.

1st Infantry Division News from Downrange

Task Force 1-77 participated in the opening of a health clinic on June 23 in the city of Ishaki, Iraq.

The Ishaki Health Clinic is the main health care center for the city and surrounding area with a population over 20,000 Iraqis.

1st Infantry Division News from Downrange

Control of the former Civil Military Operations Center compound in the city of Samarra, Iraq, was officially turned over to the local city council July 1.

1st Infantry Division News from Downrange

During a ceremony marking the transfer, Lt. Col. Kirk T. Allen, commander of Task Force 1-26, turned over the key to the compound to Tariq Kamel Uwayyed, mayor of Samarra.